6 Musgrave Street, North Lakes

This freshly painted one level home offers a quiet and secluded lifestyle for all the family to enjoy. The large tiled open plan living area connects into the kitchen and flows out the big spacious backyard. An additional family room back onto the living area with a wall for separation to allow a separate area for the kids, a home study or separate living area. The four good-sized bedrooms feature built-in-robies and ceiling fans and are nicely spread around the central living areas. Within walking distance of Squire Park and close to all shops and local schools, this property is a great escape after a busy day!
